

Supporter Scheme 2015

Proud to support RSABI

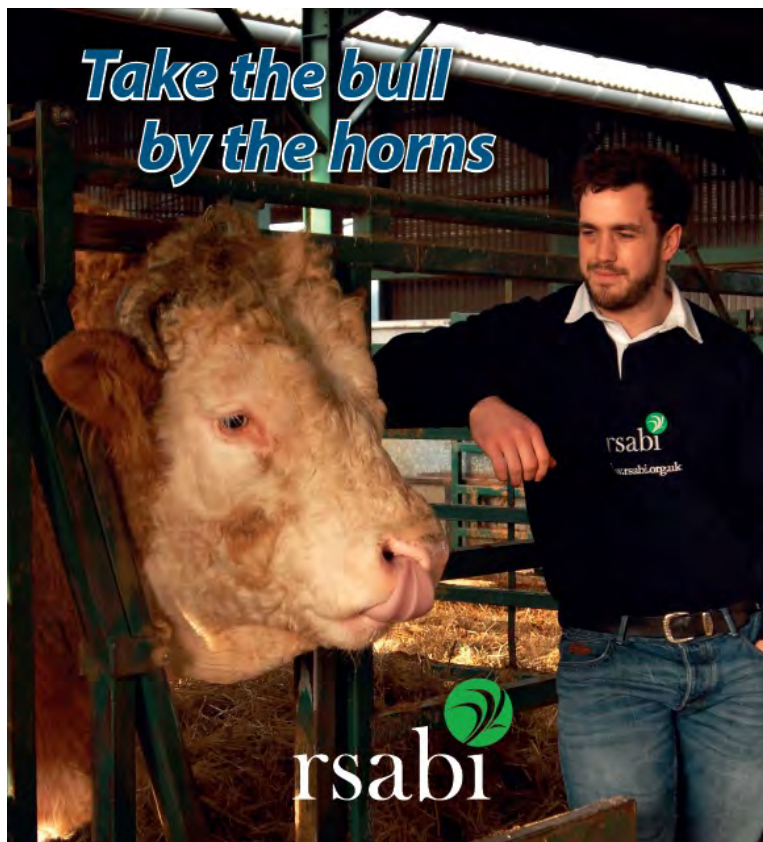

RSABI Supporter Competition

RSABI's new Supporter Scheme is providing important funds to assist our ambitious current campaign to encourage many more people to come forward for help throughout Scotland.

Unfortunately the countryside we all enjoy conceals poverty "behind closed doors" with those who have worked on the land often tackling the difficulties of rural life on their own. Thankfully RSABI is here to help in a variety of ways.

We are fortunate to enjoy the support of the entire sector in our mission and I write now to appeal to everyone to join an army of new supporters helping to put a stop to rural hardship.

Take the bull by the horns and join Scotland rugby star, Alex Dunbar, by signing up as an Individual, Business or Corporate supporter of our unique charity!

Alex, who hails from a farming background, has pledged his individual support for RSABI by acting as an ambassador for us throughout 2015. He will support the charity at a number of events and donate rugby memorabilia to help raise funds. Alex Dunbar's first move is a competition prize whereby the winner will receive two tickets to the Scotland v Ireland RBS 6 Nations Match, as well as the chance to have lunch with the player in the run up to the match.

All you need to do to enter the competition to win this great prize is sign up as an RSABI supporter before the closing date of 13 March 2015. Support donations start from just £25 for individuals.

The RSABI Supporter Scheme allows individuals and businesses to demonstrate support for a crucial rural charity. The business category enables working farm businesses to demonstrate support.

You can sign up to the Supporter Scheme by completing the slip and sending it to us. Alternatively, contact RSABI direct or visit www.rsabi.org/ambassador.

We would particularly value payment via standing order. Please ask us for details or mark the slip below, standing order, and we will contact you.

RSABI relies on the generosity of its supporters in order to ensure it can continue to help those in need.

Do you know someone who needs help?

The charity is also appealing to all members of the rural community to be on the lookout for anyone who may require financial assistance, advice or simply someone to talk to. If you know someone that may need help, please let RSABI know. We are here to help and all contact is in the strictest of confidence. Call 0131 472 4166.

Thank you for your support!
